complications have been so far overcome complications have been so far overcome that a complete agreement is con idered only a matter of time. The improvement in the situation was further man.fes ed in official and diplomatic quarters to dy, and the Bourse again showed a marked advance in rentes and a general firmness throughout.

The nervous public sentiment has entirely disappeared, and there is no further talk of the possibility of a rupture with Germany.

The tone of the notes clearly indicates that the final understanding will be on the basis of nolding a conference.

NEW YORIG. June 28th, 1908.—I believe we are getting to see the most stariling advance in cotton the trade has ever known. I estimate the number of outon speculators in America to be at least 10,000. This allows 100 clients each to every member of the New Orleans and New York Cotton Exchanges, and many of the private wire houses have as many as 1,000 accounts each.

Few people abpreciate the extent to which cotton speculation has been broadoned and popular zed in America during recent years. It appears now that shortly overy one trading in cotton will recognize the desirability of buying. If these 40,000 people buy only 100 hales each (and the average unit of trade is nearer 500 bales), their aggregate purchases will be ten million baies. In addition to this, there is a spinner's short interest of between five and six million baies for goods sold in some cases 10 ally, 1006. Who is going to supply this demand? Do not forget that the indicated world's taking of American cotton for fine calendar year out into the time of the conting Peoember sist, 200, are 11,000,000 bales into the latter is no procent prospect that the average opin on of the New York, New Orleans and Liverpool Cott in Exchanges (as set for h in my circus and process and process as the process of the case of the case of the heart of process of the case of the heart of the beard of the case of the heart of the case o

Officers Taking No Chances With Gaynor and Greene in Canada.

(By Associated Press.)

MONTREAL, June 28.—Extraordinary precautions are being taken by the authorities to guard Gaynor and Greene, the American contractors who, it now appears certain, must return to the United States to face the charge of defrauding the government. Orders were received to-day by Jailer Vallee from the Attorney-General, instructing him to carefully guard the prisoners and to engage extra guards if they are needed. Vallee thinks there is no danger of the prisoners getting away, but he is taken go colunces, and notices have been posted throughout the prison, ordering the guards to report any suspicious signs, and great care is exercised in admitting vis tors or allowing them to converse with the guards in that particular section of the jail.
